Institutional Guidelines For Students' Grievance Redressal

UGC regulations on curbing the menace of Ragging and gender violence in Universities and Colleges campuses.

Punishments to the students who are involved in Ragging:-

1. The student will be removed from the college if he/she is found involved in serious ragging.
2. Disciplinary action will be taken against the students who are involved in ragging

Curbing the menace of Ragging on campus:-

1. Anti-ragging regulations are mandatory for the Universities and the colleges.
2. There is an anti-ragging cell in the UGC to monitor exclusively the ragging cases.
3. It is mandatory for the students and parents for online submission of undertakings on antiragging.
4. The punishments for not curbing the ragging in the Educational Institutions are twofold;
5. As per section 12-B of UGC Act, Educational Institutions are liable to forfeit affiliation/recognition & other privileges.
6. The students involved in such acts shall be suspended/restricted from the campuses apart from imposing penalties and other punishments as per law.

Curbing the gender-based violence and harassment on campus:-

1. The University Grant Commission (UGC) and All India Council of Technical Education (AICTE) issued an advisory to all educational institutions to establish a cell to monitor and to deal with issues of gender-based violence cases. They have been also requested to develop a page on their website for loading such complaints of sexual harassment and to take prompt action as soon as such incident comes to their notice.
2. The Universities and Colleges must obey this policy of gender-biased violence to maintain a zero tolerance level on campuses with a view to eliminating culture of impunity.
3. To sensitize the management and the teachers of the institutions and to work out a road map of action for the guidance of colleges and other institutions the UGC has requested the Universities to hold conferences, seminars and conduct workshops and classes of self-defense and studies.
