Workshop sessions for effective communication

WORKSHOP SESSIONS FOR EFFECTIVE Communication and interpersonal skills are fundamental to success. The college organised various workshops to improve communication skills among the students using games, contemporary media, thought-provoking discussions and fun techniques. The faculty/mentors lead students from idea development to idea presentation in multi-stage workshops that utilize innovative techniques to teach effective communication skills to participants. Beyond the thinking skills that are developed with improved communication, students will learn how to debate and share their views with their peers in a positive way and with control over their strong feelings, thus improving and strengthening interpersonal relationships. Some of the workshops organised by the college are as follows.

Participating in institutional activities as "anchor, discussant' or 'rapporteur

As the development of the well-rounded individual is a principal goal of all the curricular as well as extracurricular activities in the college. The numerous experiences these activities afford positively impact students emotional, intellectual, social, and inter-personal development. By working together with other individuals, students learn to negotiate, communicate, manage conflict, and lead others. Taking active part in these activities helps students to understand the importance of critical thinking skill, time management and academic and intellectual competence. Students also develop leadership skills where they anchor the activities and lead the event organised in the institution. Almost all the events held in the college are compered/anchor by the students. Events organised by the students are guided by the faculty/mentors. Thus, students learn to plan, organise and conduct events at institutional, inter-institutional levels.

CLASSROOM TEACHING LEARNING SITUATIONS ALONG WITH TEACHER AND PEER FEEDBACK

The knowledge, advice, and resources a teacher faculty mentor shares depend on the format and goals of a specific mentoring relationship. A faculty shares with a mentee information about his or her own career path, as well as provide guidance, motivation, emotional support, and role modelling. The faculty also help the students with exploring careers, setting goals, developing contacts, and identifying resources. The role of the mentor changes as the needs of the mentee change. Some mentoring relationships are part of structured programs that have specific expectations and guidelines others are more informal. Methodology lecturers guide the students in classroom activities through formative assessments as well as summative They give feedback to the teacher trainees in enhancing their skills whereby the re-teach present refined skills.

CURRICULUM ASSESSMENT

The curriculum assessment committee is a cell of college and other educational institution which is responsible for making evidence-based recommendation for curriculum modification. It establishes the process and procedures for conducting assessment on campus. It is a process of gathering and analyzing information from multiple sources in order to improve student learning in sustainable ways.

Through assessment criteria the learners are able to know what are expected to do. It shows them how they can demonstrate they have achieved the learning outcomes.

The purpose of each college curriculum assessment committee is to review the status of the college achievement and maintenance of the degree program. The curriculum assessment committee is charged by the faculty senate to foster faculty stewardship of student learning degree program.

The purpose of assessment is to gather relevant information about student interests to make judgments about their learning process.

KEY ELEMENTS OF AN ASSESSMENT PLAN INCLUDE: -

1. Objective of student learning outcomes.
2. The plan will include a variety of measure and methods including both qualitative and quantitative assessment.
3. After implementation of the method of measurement, the result that we will achieved should be clearly described and related to the objective are stated criteria for success.
4. At last we try to use the result in future plan and assessment continuous assessment provides day to day feedback about the learning and teaching process. A good curriculum assessment can reinforce the efficacy of teaching and learning. It also encourages the understanding of teaching as a formative process that evolves overtime with feedback and input from students. This creates good classroom rapport. Student assessment are necessary because:-
 - Throughout a lesson, the teacher might want to check for understanding by using a formative assessment.
 - Assessment also beneficial in the field of diagnostic test by action the teacher want to know the hurdle of teaching procedure and also the problem as well as difficulties of their learner.
 - Through assessment not only teacher knows his teaching efficiency but also student knows his progress. Because it helps them to assess their potential and way of presentation.

THROUGHOUT A LESSON, THE TEACHER MIGHT WANT TO CHECK FOR UNDERSTANDING BY USING A FORMATIVE ASSESSMENT: -

Assessment also beneficial in the field of diagnostic test by which the teacher want to know the hurdle of teaching procedure and also the problem as well as difficulties of their learner.

Through assessment not only teacher knows the teaching efficiency but also student knows his progress. Because it helps them to assess their potential and way of presentation.

TOOLS THAT WE USE FOR CURRICULUM ASSESSMENT:-

1. Curriculum mapping
2. Focus groups
3. Portfolios
4. Structured interviews
5. Surveys

IMPORTANCE OF CURRICULUM ASSESSMENT:-

- Provide diagnostic feedback
- Helps educators set standards
- Evaluators progress
- Relates to students' progress
- Motivates performance
- For teacher self-evaluation

It is the method that creating goals not only for teacher and students but also for college and school. Curriculum assessment also standardizes the learning goals for an entire school and provides clear path for students to progress from one grade to another.
